Pope Francis

<National Report> In a controversial move by the Catholic church, Pope Francis has come out in vocal support of RFID Chip technologies and the extraordinary potential they hold for mankind. The outrage stems from a belief held by many Evangelicals, Fundamentalists and Catholics, that RFID implants are the Mark Of The Beast, spoken about in their Holy Books chapter regarding the end of the world.

During the Pontiff's weekly general address, he spoke to the crowd about his view on the RFID technology, and assured his many followers that no spiritual harm can come from receiving an RFID implant.

I We have examined the scriptures thoroughly, and I can conclusively say that there is nothing to indicate that RFID Chips are Satanic in anyway. If anything, these devices are a blessing from God himself, bestowed upon humanity to solve many of the world's ills.

He went on to urge his devotees to be open minded in this era where brilliant new technological advancements are being made everyday. The Bishop of Rome explained to those in attendance his excitement over making RFID implantation a mandatory procedure for all employees and residents of the Vatican.

Last month, NBC predicted that by 2017, every American will own a RFID implant. Not surprising, considering humanities ever increasing reliance on technology. With the advent of products like Google Glass, the merging of Man and Machine inches closer each day. Widespread implantation of the RFID chip would be an enormous and historic leap into that glorious, utopian future.

Late last year the citizens of Hanna, Wyoming helped to beta test RFID implantation. Everyone residing in the small town carries an RFID device between the skin of their thumb and forefinger, using it both as an ID and a method for paying for goods and services. Town members state that the opinion of the RFID is overwhelmingly positive, and are proud to be the first Americans to have received the implant.

with the implementation of RFID technology. Crimes such as kidnapping and identity theft would cease to exist. In medical emergencies where the patient is incapacitated, doctors can find life saving information by scanning the individual's RFID chip, and for those people who love shopping, you'll never have to carry money that can be stolen, or debt cards that can be lost; Now your entire banking information is literally in the palm of your hand.

With the Pope's endorsement and blessing, interest in RFID implantation is sure to see a wider acceptance from members of the church. This could, hopefully, be the push that this agenda needs to gain household recognition.

The Bible says to BEWARE of false PROPHETS. Please do not have the chip implanted. It is the mark of the beast and the false prophets will try and make you believe otherwise.

You know, up until right now I was on the fence and have been for a very long time about the existence of God and I still don't know which God is the right one to believe in but I know that this micro chip that the pope is wanting everyone to get is all bad and I'm afraid that the world really might be coming to an end and I will be going to hell for not believing for all those years. Whoever is reading this please do not get this chip in you because I truly believe that it really could be the mark of the beast. We have to stop this somehow. I am not a religious person by any means, but after finding out that the pope is supporting this I do believe that he could quite possibly be the anti-Christ, and we should not listen to a word he says. Wasn't it really weird that the last pope resigned and then this guy is wanting us all to put a chip in our finger? That is the first pope to resign in the last 600 years. Something is very off about this guy and I hope that whoever reads this will see that this chip is the beginning of the end for us unless we can ban together and stop it. Please people use your heads and your hearts and let's stop this before the rapture as all you religious nuts call it and maybe just maybe there will never be a rapture. I am nobody and up until tonight I have not believed in God. I swear to you on my children that I have never been the religious type because there are just too many religions to choose from to just pick one. But I do believe now that there just might be someone up there watching over us.

Zach, pray and ask God reveal Himself to you. God is love and He awaits His prodigal sons and daughters.

Revelation 13:16-18 King James Version (KJV)
16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:
17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.
18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

Revelation 13:16-18 New Living Translation (NLT)

16 He required everyone—small and great, rich and poor, free and slave—to be given a mark on the right hand or on the forehead. 17 And no one could buy or sell anything without that mark, which was either the name of the beast or the number representing his name. 18 Wisdom is needed here. Let the one with understanding solve the meaning of the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man.[a] His number is 666.[b]

BEWARE OF THE FALSE PROPHETS!!!!!!!!!!

Matthew 24:24 ¶For false messiahs and false prophets will appear and perform great signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect.¶

Jeremiah 23:16 ¶This is what the LORD Almighty says: ¶Do not listen to what the prophets are prophesying to you; they fill you with false hopes. They speak visions from their own minds, not from the mouth of the LORD.¶

Matthew 7:15 ¶Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves.¶

If you know of a false prophet or teacher, you must confront them and tell them that God's hand is against them and they will not be in the kingdom because they are professing ¶false visions¶ and even giving ¶lying divinations¶ but their source of not from God and that only leaves one other source and it is Satan or his demons.

Conclusion:

I believe it makes more sense to call these false prophets ¶false profits¶ or prophets of profit for like the ravenous wolves who want to exploit, extort, and fleece the sheep, the false prophets seek to do this only ¶because they are turning whole families away from the truth by their false teaching. And they do it only for money¶ (Titus 1:11). Some even go so far as to say ¶that godliness is a means to financial gain¶ (1st Tim 6:5) where Paul was warning Timothy about false teachers with ungodly motivations (1st Tim 6:3-5) but you can be sure of this, ¶the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander off into myths.¶ (2nd Tim 4:3-4) and I believe that time has come.

Dogs do not go to heaven or hell. The everlasting soul of man is what separates us from the beasts. Only man has an eternal soul.

I would like knowing precisions to know whom and where pope Francis has said that injections of RFID are not dangerous and not prohibited by scriptures.
does the population of Vaticano, including pope Francis, has already been injected with RFID in their right hand ?
Looking to your prompt answer,
